3. Renegotiation

Any modification to this Agreement shall be made mutually and in writing.

4. Compensation (Revenue Share Model)

In consideration of the Collaborator's contributions, the Company agrees to provide the following:

4.1 Revenue Share

The Technical Collaborator shall be entitled to:

four Percent (4%) of revenue generated from the platform's monetization activities, as defined below.

4.2 Conditions of Revenue Share

a. Revenue share shall be calculated based on net revenue, defined as revenue remaining after direct operational costs (including but not limited to hosting, infrastructure, third-party services, and essential running costs).

b. Revenue share payments shall be made on a monthly basis.

c. This revenue share applies strictly to the specific product under this Agreement and does not extend to other Company products, services, or income streams.

d. Definition of Revenue

For the purpose of this Agreement, "revenue" shall refer strictly to income generated by the Company from the platform's monetization mechanisms, including but not limited to:

Commissions earned from courses uploaded and sold on the platform
Commissions earned from client projects facilitated through the platform

Revenue shall exclude:

Payments made directly to course creators or service providers
Funds processed through the platform on behalf of third parties
External funding, investments, or grants
Revenue from unrelated Company services or projects

4.3 Duration and Cap

The revenue share shall continue until the Technical Collaborator has received a total cumulative payout of ₦5,000,000.

There shall be no fixed time limitation on this revenue share. Payments shall continue regardless of duration until the stated cap has been fully reached.

Upon reaching the total cumulative payout of ₦5,000,000, the revenue share obligation shall automatically terminate.

The Company reserves the right to renegotiate the revenue share terms in the event of major business changes, including but not limited to acquisition, merger, or external investment.

5. Future Engagement Opportunities

The Company may, at its sole discretion, offer the Technical Collaborator:

- A paid contract role, or
- A full-time or part-time position

This will be based on performance, availability, and the Company's financial position after the product begins generating consistent revenue.

Additionally, the Collaborator may be considered for paid client projects handled by the Company.

6. Confidentiality

The Technical Collaborator agrees to keep strictly confidential all non-public information relating to the Company, including but not limited to:

- Source code and technical systems
- Business strategies and plans
- Product designs and architecture
- Customer data and analytics
- Financial information
- Access credentials and internal tools

The Collaborator shall not disclose, copy, or use such information for any purpose outside this Agreement without prior written consent.

This obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

7. Intellectual Property

All code, designs, systems, documentation, and materials created specifically for the product under this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of the Company.

The Technical Collaborator:

- Assigns all rights, title, and interest in such work to the Company
- Agrees not to reuse or distribute such work without authorization

However, the Collaborator may:

- Showcase non-sensitive aspects of their contributions in their portfolio
- Reference their involvement for professional purposes

8. Term and Termination

8.1 Term

This Agreement continues until terminated.

8.2 Collaborator Termination

- The Collaborator may terminate after three (3) months, with written notice.
- The Collaborator shall be compensated only for completed and accepted work based on agreed milestones
- The Collaborator forfeits any future revenue share beyond earned value

8.3 Company Termination

- The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time by written notice.
- If termination is due to misconduct, breach, negligence, or failure to perform, → all future revenue share shall immediately cease
- The Collaborator shall be compensated only for verified work completed up to termination, based on agreed scope and milestones

8.4 Upon Termination

- All work shall cease immediately
- Access to Company systems shall be revoked
- All Company property must be returned

9. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute arising from this Agreement shall be resolved as follows:

- First, through good faith negotiation
- If unresolved, through binding arbitration in Nigeria
- Only if arbitration fails may parties proceed to court

10. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for failure or delay caused by events beyond reasonable control, including:

- Natural disasters (floods, earthquakes, pandemics)
- War, civil unrest, or government actions
- Power failures or internet outages
- Cyberattacks or infrastructure failures
- Performance obligations shall be suspended during such events.

Provided no confidential or proprietary information is disclosed.

11. Term and Termination

This Agreement shall commence on the date stated above and continue until terminated by either party.

Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice.

Upon termination:

The Collaborator shall cease all work on the product

All Company property and access credentials must be returned or revoked

Any earned but unpaid revenue share up to the termination date shall remain payable Revenue share shall not continue after termination, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

12. Independent Relationship

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to create any partnership, employment, or joint venture relationship beyond the scope of this collaboration.

The Technical Collaborator is an independent contributor and is responsible for their own taxes, obligations, and liabilities.

13.. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

14. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior discussions, agreements, or understandings, whether written or oral.
